

Edna Lyman Houtz Called By Death

Word was received in Provo Thursday of the death of Mrs. Edna Lyman Houtz, widow of the late Judge D. D. Houtz of the district court and daughter of the late President Francis M. Lyman.

Mrs. Houtz is well remembered in Provo where she lived for many years. Since leaving Provo she has made her home in Oklahoma City.

The funeral services were held Friday in Kansas City.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Virginia Hirsch, Kansas City; Edna Lyman Houtz, widow of the York; two sons, Ellwood Houtz, London, England, and Max Houtz, Kansas City.
