

MORMONS IN GERMANY.

Apostle Lyman Addresses a Congregation of 400 in Berlin.

Berlin, July 29.—Francis M. Lyman, one of the Mormon apostles, preached yesterday before the Berlin Mormon congregation, which now numbers over 400.

Kattner, a German Mormon missionary, reported that the movement was making progress in Germany, and asserted that a few days ago a congregation numbering eighty-eight had been organized in Stettin.