

THE DEATH OF APOSTLE FRANCIS MARION LYMAN.

In the unexpected death of Apostle Francis M. Lyman, which took place at his home in Salt Lake City last Saturday morning, the people of Utah lost one of her most active citizens; not only as a leader in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, but as an active citizen in the State of Utah. From his youth he has been one of the foremost workers in the march of improvement, not only as a faithful preacher of the Gospel, but in assisting in making the laws of our state and as a pioneer in this new Western Empire. His native activity always found him on the job that was needed to-day so that he would be prepared for the work of to-morrow. His disposition was too active to take up half hearted work for a time, as he wanted every blow to count as he thought was most needed at the time.
