

MRS. F. M. LYMAN DIES AT HER HOME IN SALT LAKE CITY.

Mrs. Rhoda Ann Taylor Lyman, widow of Francis M. Lyman, late President of the quorum of Twelve Apostles of the Mormon Church, died Monday morning at her home in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Lyman was the daughter of James and Ann Stanley Taylor and was born August 29, 1840 in New South Wales, Australia. Her mother was left a widow when the daughter was 10 years old, there being five other children. With the family she joined the Mormon Church in 1853 and 1855 with the family she immigrated to the United States, locating at San Bernardino, California.

She became the wife of Francis M. Lyman on November 18, 1857, and that winter they moved to Utah.

The family resided for many years in Tooele, afterwards moving to Salt Lake City where they have since resided.

Her posterity numbers ninety-five, including nine children, forty-four grandchildren, twenty-two great-grandchildren. The children surviving are Mrs. C. R. McBride, of Tooele, F. M. Lyman, Mrs. Edna L. Houtz, Mrs. E. G. Gowand and Mrs. P. W. Dunyon, all of Salt Lake City. Four of her daughters are dead.

The funeral services for Sister Lyman were held in the Tooele South ward meeting house Wednesday at 10 o'clock a. m.

President C. Alvin Orme presiding. The choir sang, "Sister, Thou Was Mild and Lovely."

Opening prayer by Elder B. L. Bowen. Miss Otella Shields sang, "Face To Face." President C. Alvin Orme was the first speaker, referring to the life of the deceased while in Tooele. Elder George Albert Smith of the Council of the Twelve Apostles then spoke feelingly of the life of Sister Lyman, and of the eternity of the Marriage Covenant.

Elder Semlor B. Young of the First Seven Presidents of Seventies and Elder Rudger Clawson of the Council of the Twelve Apostles were the concluding speakers.

During the services Mrs. H. H. Johnson sang, "The End of a Perfect Day."

The choir sang an Anthem, and the benediction was by Bishop E. M. Atkin.

The interment was in the Tooele cemetery, the grave being dedicated by John A. Bevan.

The funeral party came out from Salt Lake City in a special coach on the Salt Lake Route, returning the same day on the 3:30 p. m. train.
