

Hazel Lyman Buried at Boulder

Funeral services were held March 19 in the Boulder ward chapel for Hazel S. Lyman. Family prayer, Ivan Lyman; opening prayer, LaVar Isaacson; musical selection, Singing Mothers; tribute, Gladys LeFevre; speaker, Clyde Spencer; vocal solo, Usher Spencer; speaker, Bishop Eldon Hafen; remarks, Bishop Uvon Roundy; vocal solo, Arthur Nettleship; closing prayer, J. C. Spencer. Burial was in the Boulder Cemetery.

Mrs. Lyman died March 15 at her home in St. George of natural causes. She was born April 29, 1893 in Teasdale to Charles and Sarah May Coleman Snow. On May 20, 1914, she married Francis Marion Lyman in the Manti Temple. He was killed in a hunting accident Oct. 22, 1938.

Mrs. Lyman was a member of the LDS Church, she was a former Relief Society President, Sunday School Secretary, and MIA Secretary. She lived in Boulder from 1914 to 1951, after which she moved to St. George where she worked in the Temple.

Survivors: sons, Truman and Ivan, both of Boulder; Lincoln and Dale of Escalante; Kirk, Teasdale; daughters, Mrs Douglas (LaRue) Wentworth, Mrs. LaVar (Edith) Isaacson, Salt Lake City; Mrs. John C. (Opal) Spencer, Mapleton; Mrs. Glen (Loya) Gubler, St George; 45 grandchildren, one great grandchild; brother, sisters, Charles, Salt Lake City; Emma Jane Brinkerhoff, Bicknell; Mrs. Elbert (Lucina) Parker, Joseph.